She underwent Tubectomy operation at Government Hospital, Rayadurg on 29/12/2008, so that she would not have any more children further. She came to know that the Government of Andhra Pradesh would give Rs.1,00,000/- for the girl child under "Girl Child Protection Scheme" after the girl child attained 18 years of age. Accordingly she along with her husband, Sri N. Along with the application, she enclosed the originals of Birth Certificate of her daughter, Baby Lalitha Bhavani (1 ½ year age), her Tubectomy Certificate, Caste-cum-Income Certificate and Nativity certificate. After receiving their application, the Project Officer, Smt B. Gowramma demanded an amount of Rs.10,000/- for forwarding their application to higher authorities. She and her husband expressed their inability to give that much bribe amount to her. Again on 11/03/2009, she and her husband met Smt B. Gowramma, Project Officer, Rayadurg at her residence, Rayadurg and requested her to forward their application for which she vehemently told them that their work would not be done without giving the minimum bribe amount of Rs.5,000/-. They pleaded her stating that they were poor people and could not give the demanded amount. For that Smt B. Gowramma responded saying that their application would be forwarded to higher authorities only on giving of Rs.3,000/- as bribe, otherwise they should not come to her again. As there was no other go for them, she accepted to give Rs.3,000/- as bribe to Smt B. Gowramma. Then Smt. B. Gowramma told them that she was going to camp on 12/03/2009 and asked them to come in the afternoon of 13/03/2009 to her office and give the bribe amount of Rs.3,000/- to her. She was not willing to pay the bribe, but Smt B.Gowramma would not forward her application to the higher authorities without giving the bribe amount. Hence she requested to take legal action against Smt B. Gowramma for demanding the bribe amount of Rs.3,000/- from her.
